

History tells us
that blurring the
lines between news
and propaganda is
the hallmark of Fascism. This is precisely what Sinclair is doing
with its order to
its station
affiliates to show
the inflammatory,
radically partisan
wounded Honor days
before the
presidential election. The job
of the FCC is to prevent abuse of the
airwaves shared by
all Americans and it
will be held accountable in time
if it remains aloof
from the demand of
all patriotic
Americans to grant
equal time to John Kerry's campaign.
All institutions
that attempt
totalitarian control
as Sinclair is doing
think they are
invulnerable, but none are. Read
history, ancient and
the history of only
a few years ago.
If you continue in
your present passive
collaboration with Sinclair, you will
also be condemned by history and your children and
grandchildren will
bear the shame of
your memory, not only here but around the world. If Sinclair doesn't think George W. Bush
can win a fair
fight, how much
confidence does
that group have in him? If you don't think it's your job
to ensure the fight
is fair, do you
deserve your important place in
our society?

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Martha P. Nochimson,
Patriot
